Clay Finnesand

Clay is originally from Louisville, KY, and now based in Atlanta, GA. His music is a blend of acoustic singer/songwriter, pop, with some influences from soul and blues music. He has an ear for music, and a heart for Jesus. "I want to reach people who might never step foot in a church or listen to Christian music, I hope my music and my life can reflect truth and joy that belongs to God in a way that promotes thoughtfulness and points to the gospel. Simply put, I do this because I want to, I love it, and art/music is a powerful medium in the world to help and to connect with people."

Meck Arts Team

This modern Christian praise and worship band is a group of volunteers with the arts team at Mecklenburg Community Church in Charlotte. "We all have different origins, and come from diverse musical backgrounds, but are here for the same purpose. We do what we do because we believe that we have a responsibility to use the gifts that God has given us for His glory, and to reach others who do not know Him. We play and sing because we have a God-given passion for music, and because we love leading others in worshipping our Savior Jesus Christ."
